

Plan Now for
Sept. 26 & 27 in Atlanta!

If you attended Southeast Region's Annual Conference last year in Marietta, you know how excellent it was, how many SER members participated, a record 276, and what an outstanding program was offered!

SER 2003 promises to be even better, more attendees, more conference space, an expanded program, and a modern and elegant business hotel dedicated that weekend to just one group, Civil Air Patrol.

The reasons for attending are many:

- informative program on current must-know issues,
- professional development from top-level instructors,
- meeting with peers in other wings and sharing experiences and best practices,
- relaxing environment in a luxury hotel,
- exciting destination city with many local attractions,
- low sleeping room rates, and
- low, low conference fees.

Plan to check in Friday and attend the evening reception on the lake. Bring your family, spouse, or guest and enjoy the conference's social events and the amenities of this wonderful hotel.

Sept 26 & 27, 2003

Southeast Region Annual Conference 2003

The Westin Atlanta North

At Perimeter

Seven Concourse Parkway
Atlanta, Georgia 30328

The Westin Atlanta North is located close to I-85 and GA-400 and is just two miles from the Perimeter Mall and the MARTA Center at Perimeter. This sleek, contemporary 270-room hotel faces a picturesque lake and although it is in the center of one of Atlanta's most prestigious business districts, the setting is a serene 64-acre Georgia woodland.

The Concourse Athletic Club, 80,000 square feet of state-of-the-art workout facilities, the largest in the southeast, adjoins the hotel and is available to hotel guests for a daily fee. The Westin also has an outdoor heated pool, jacuzzi, sauna, and steam room, and free guest parking.

Elegant newly renovated guest rooms include data ports, Starbucks coffee, down coverlets, and dual shower heads. And CAP can expect an outstanding banquet as their chef is said to be renowned throughout Atlanta and the Westin chain.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE September 26-27, 2003

Check-in begins Friday at noon and continues until 1900. Plan on attending a preconference Friday afternoon workshop, and don't miss the Friday evening reception from 1930 to 2100 outdoors on the Westin terrace overlooking the lake.

The General Session opens at 0800 Saturday morning. Between 0945 and 1700, there will be a wide variety of relevant seminars and presentations, many focused on the homeland security theme for 2003, "Eyes Over Southeast Skies." The conference is fortunate to have CAPMart (CAP Bookstore) attending and open Friday afternoon through Saturday at 1700. There will be no sessions Sunday to allow for travel time.

Join our top national officers and directors, CAP Southeast Region Commander, Col. Antonio Pineda, and many of the region's wing commanders, SER staff officers and instructors, and your CAP friends for the awards banquet in the Westin Ballroom Saturday evening at 1900. Your guests are also welcome to attend.

RESERVE THE HOTEL NOW!

At $69, the Westin Atlanta North at Perimeter has a limited number of rooms just for CAP. These elegantly furnished rooms are normally twice that rate and higher, so call now before they are gone!
